

Holy Communion: Rite Two Fifth Sunday after the Epiphany

February 8, 2026 | 8:00 AM & 10:00 AM

WELCOME!

We are an Episcopal (Anglican) community of various backgrounds and beliefs, drawn together by our love of God in Jesus Christ. We believe that God's radically inclusive love excludes no one. At St. Dunstan's, all people are welcome, no exceptions. Please visit our Welcome Table on the patio to get more information about our church. A "Welcome Pad" is located at the end of each pew if you would like to share your name and/or contact information. If you are interested in membership, please speak with our Rector, Rev. Rebecca.

We're so glad you're here!

Prayer book & Hymnals: In the pews you will see various books in different colors. The red book is our Book of Common Prayer (BCP). BCP pages are included if you prefer to use the Prayer Book. The blue Hymnal 1982 contains many of the hymns in today's service. Other hymns, beginning with "J-", can be found in the white, large ringed book entitled "Make a Joyful Noise," produced by our Parish Musician, Gregory Funk.

Glo- ry to God in the high- est and peace to his people on earth. Lord God, heaven- ly King, al-might- y God and Fa- ther, we wor- ship you, we give you thanks, we praise you for your glo- ry. — Lord Je-sus Christ, on- ly Son of the Fa-ther,

Lord God, Lamb of God, you take a-way the sin of the world: have mer-cy on us; you are seat-ed at the right hand of the Fa-ther: re- ceive our prayer. For you a-lone are the Ho-ly One, you a-lone are the Lord, you a-lone are the Most High, Je-sus Christ, with the Ho-ly Spi-rit, in the glo-ry of God the Fa-ther. A - men.

The Collect of the Day

Celebrant The Lord be with you.

People And also with you.

Celebrant Let us pray.

Set us free, O God, from the bondage of our sins, and give us the liberty of that abundant life which you have made known to us in your Son our Savior Jesus Christ; who lives and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

All are seated.

First Reading: Isaiah 58:1-9

Shout out, do not hold back! Lift up your voice like a trumpet! Announce to my people their rebellion, to the house of Jacob their sins. Yet day after day they seek me and delight to know my ways, as if they were a nation that practiced righteousness and did not forsake the ordinance of their God; they ask of me righteous judgments, they delight to draw near to God. “Why do we fast, but you do not see? Why humble ourselves, but you do not notice?” Look, you serve your own interest on your fast day, and oppress all your workers. Look, you fast only to quarrel and to fight and to strike with a wicked fist.

Such fasting as you do today will not make your voice heard on high. Is such the fast that I choose, a day to humble oneself? Is it to bow down the head like a bulrush, and to lie in sackcloth and ashes? Will you call this a fast, a day acceptable to the LORD? Is not this the fast that I choose: to loose the bonds of injustice, to undo the thongs of the yoke, to let the oppressed go free, and to break every yoke? Is it not to share your bread with the hungry, and bring the homeless poor into your house; when you see the naked, to cover them, and not to hide yourself from your own kin? Then your light shall break forth like the dawn, and your healing shall spring up quickly; your vindicator shall go before you, the glory of the LORD shall be your rear guard. Then you shall call, and the LORD will answer; you shall cry for help, and he will say, Here I am. [If you remove the yoke from among you, the pointing of the finger, the speaking of evil, if you offer your food to the hungry and satisfy the needs of the afflicted, then your light shall rise in the darkness and your gloom be like the noonday. The LORD will guide you continually, and satisfy your needs in parched places, and make your bones strong; and you shall be like a watered garden, like a spring of water, whose waters never fail. Your ancient ruins shall be rebuilt; you shall raise up the foundations of many generations; you shall be called the repairer of the breach, the restorer of streets to live in.

The Word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Psalm 112:1-9 (spoken at 8:00)

1 Hallelujah!

Happy are they who fear the / Lord *
and have great delight in his com-/mandments!

2 Their descendants will be mighty in the / land; *
the generation of the upright will be / blessed.

3 Wealth and riches will be in their / house, *
and their righteousness will last for / ever.

4 Light shines in the darkness for the / upright; *
the righteous are merciful and full of com-/passion.

5 It is good for them to be generous in / lending * and to manage their affairs with / justice.

6 For they will never be / shaken; *
the righteous will be kept in everlasting re-/membrance.

7 They will not be afraid of any evil / rumors; *
their heart is right;
they put their trust in the / Lord.

8 Their heart is established and will not / shrink, *
until they see their desire upon their / enemies.

9 They have given freely to the / poor, *
and their righteousness stands fast for ever;
they will hold up their head with / honor.

10 The wicked will see it and be angry;
they will gnash their teeth and pine a-/way; *
the desires of the wicked will / perish.

Second Reading: 1 Corinthians 2:1-12

When I came to you, brothers and sisters, I did not come proclaiming the mystery of God to you in lofty words or wisdom. For I decided to know nothing among you except Jesus Christ, and him crucified. And I came to you in weakness and in fear and in much trembling. My speech and my proclamation were not with plausible words of wisdom, but with a demonstration of the Spirit and of power, so that your faith might rest not on human wisdom but on the power of God. Yet among the mature we do speak wisdom, though it is not a wisdom of this age or of the rulers of this age, who are doomed to perish. But we speak God's wisdom, secret and hidden, which God decreed before the ages for our glory. None of the rulers of this age understood this; for if they had, they would not have crucified the Lord of glory. But, as it is written, "What no eye has seen, nor ear heard, nor the human heart conceived, what God has prepared for those who love him"—these things God has revealed to us through the Spirit; for the Spirit searches everything, even the depths of God. For what human being knows what is truly human except the human spirit that is within? So also no one comprehends what is truly God's except the Spirit of God. Now we have received not the spirit of the world, but the Spirit that is from God, so that we may understand the gifts bestowed on us by God.

The Word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Sequence Hymn J-289, v1-4

Prayer of St. Francis

The Gospel: Matthew 5:13-20

Leader The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Matthew...

People Glory to you, Lord Christ.

Jesus said, "You are the salt of the earth; but if salt has lost its taste, how can its saltiness be restored? It is no longer good for anything, but is thrown out and trampled under foot. "You are the light of the world. A city built on a hill cannot be hid. No one after lighting a lamp puts it under the bushel basket, but on the lampstand, and it gives light to all in the house. In the same way, let your light shine before others, so that they may see your good works and give glory to your Father in heaven. "Do not think that I have come to abolish the law or the prophets; I have come not to abolish but to fulfill. For truly I tell you, until heaven and earth pass away, not one letter, not one stroke of a letter, will pass from the law until all is accomplished. Therefore, whoever breaks one of the least of these commandments, and teaches others to do the same, will be called least in the kingdom of heaven; but whoever does them and teaches them will be called great in the kingdom of heaven. For I tell you, unless your righteousness exceeds that of the scribes and Pharisees, you will never enter the kingdom of heaven."

The Gospel of the Lord.

Praise to you, Lord Christ.

(10:00) Children's Moment

Sermon

The Rev. D. Rebecca Hansen

The Nicene Creed, standing as able

We believe in one God,
the Father, the Almighty,
maker of heaven and earth,
of all that is, seen and unseen.

We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ,
the only Son of God,
eternally begotten of the Father,
God from God, Light from Light,
true God from true God,
begotten, not made,
of one Being with the Father.

Through him all things were made.
For us and for our salvation

he came down from heaven:
by the power of the Holy Spirit
he became incarnate from the Virgin Mary,
and was made man.
For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate;
he suffered death and was buried.
On the third day he rose again
in accordance with the Scriptures;
he ascended into heaven
and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead,
and his kingdom will have no end.
We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father and the Son.
With the Father and the Son he is worshiped and glorified.
He has spoken through the Prophets.
We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church.
We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins.
We look for the resurrection of the dead,
and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Offertory Sentence

(10:00) Offertory Anthem: We are the children of light

Hal H. Hopson

We are the children of light, for Christ is the light of the world.

We are one body, we are one hope. Join we together and sing.

We sing of those gone before us, whose faith has brought us this day, the prophets, pastors, and teachers; yes, these have shown us The Way.

Yes, we are saints of the present, we add new notes to the song, the past, the present, the future, now join, united and strong.

People And of thine own have we given thee.

The Great Thanksgiving: Eucharistic Prayer C (spoken at 8:00)

BCP 369

God of all power, Ruler of the Universe, you are worthy of glory and praise.

A musical staff with a treble clef and a key signature of one sharp. The tempo is marked f and the section is labeled People. The notes are quarter notes and eighth notes, with a fermata over the eighth note of the first measure. The lyrics "Glory to you for ever and ever." are written below the staff.

At your command all things came to be: the vast expanse of interstellar space, galaxies, suns, the planets in their courses, and this fragile earth, our island home.

A musical staff with a treble clef and a key signature of one sharp. The tempo is marked f and the section is labeled People. The notes are quarter notes and eighth notes. The lyrics "By your will they were created and have their being." are written below the staff.

From the primal elements you brought forth the human race, and blessed us with memory, reason, and skill. You made us the rulers of creation. But we turned against you, and betrayed your trust; and we turned against one another.

A musical staff with a treble clef and a key signature of one sharp. The tempo is marked mp and the section is labeled People. The notes are quarter notes and eighth notes. The lyrics "Have mer-cy, Lord, for we are sinners in your sight." are written below the staff.

Again and again, you called us to return. Through prophets and sages you revealed your righteous Law. And in the fullness of time you sent your only Son, born of a woman, to fulfill your Law, to open for us the way of freedom and peace.

A musical staff with a treble clef and a key signature of one sharp. The tempo is marked f and the section is labeled People. The notes are quarter notes and eighth notes. The lyrics "By his blood, he reconciled us. By his wounds, we are healed." are written below the staff.

And therefore we praise you, joining with the heavenly chorus, with prophets, apostles, and martyrs, and with all those in every generation who have looked to you in hope, to proclaim with them your glory, in their unending hymn:

A musical score for three voices. The top voice (treble) sings "Ho- ly. ho- ly, ho- ly Lord," with a fermata over the eighth note of the first measure. The middle voice (alto) sings "God of pow-er and might, Heav-en and earth are full of your glo-ry." The bottom voice (bass) sings "Ho- san-na, Ho- san-na, in the high-". The tempo is marked p (piano), mp (mezzo-forte), and mf (mezzo-forte). The section is labeled People.

Musical score for 'Blessed is he who comes in the Name of the Lord'. The score consists of two staves. The first staff begins with a treble clef, a key signature of one sharp, and a common time signature. It features a melodic line with various note values (eighth and sixteenth notes) and rests. The lyrics 'Bless-ed is he who comes in the Name of the Lord. Ho-' are written below the notes. The second staff begins with a treble clef, a key signature of one sharp, and a common time signature. It features a melodic line with eighth and sixteenth notes. The lyrics 'san-na, Ho-san-na in the high-' are written below the notes. The score includes dynamic markings: 'cres' (crescendo) and 'ff' (fortissimo) in the second staff. The vocal parts are separated by a vertical line.

And so, Father, we who have been redeemed by him, and made a new people by water and the Spirit, now bring before you these gifts. Sanctify them by your Holy Spirit to be the Body and Blood of Jesus Christ our Lord.

On the night he was betrayed he took bread, said the blessing, broke the bread, and gave it to his friends, and said, "Take, eat: This is my Body, which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me."

After supper, he took the cup of wine, gave thanks, and said, "Drink this, all of you: This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is shed for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me."

Remembering now his work of redemption, and offering to you this sacrifice of thanksgiving,

People

We celebrate his death and re-sur-Rec-tion, as we await the day of his coming.

Lord God of our Fathers and Mothers: God of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob, Sarah, Rebecca, Leah and Rachel; God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ: Open our eyes to see your hand at work in the world about us. Deliver us from the presumption of coming to this Table for solace only, and not for strength; for pardon only, and not for renewal. Let the grace of this Holy Communion make us one body, one spirit in Christ, that we may worthily serve the world in his name.

Music notation for the hymn verse. The melody is in G major, common time. The lyrics are: "Risen Lord, be known to us in the breaking of the bread." The melody consists of quarter notes and eighth notes on the G, B, and D strings.

(Sung) Accept these prayers and praises, Father, through Jesus Christ our great High Priest, to whom, with you and the Holy Spirit, your Church gives honor, glory, and worship, from generation to generation.

(10:00) Communion Solo: What a Friend We Have in Jesus

arr. Sue Caldwell

What a Friend we have in Jesus, All our sins and griefs to bear!

What a privilege to carry Everything to God in prayer!

O what peace we often forfeit, O what needless pain we bear,

All because we do not carry Everything to God in prayer!

Have we trials and temptations? Is there trouble anywhere?

We should never be discouraged, Take it to the Lord in prayer.

Can we find a friend so faithful Who will all our sorrows share?

Jesus knows our every weakness, Take it to the Lord in prayer.

Are we weak and heavy-laden, Cumbered with a load of care?

Precious Savior, still our refuge— Take it to the Lord in prayer;

Do thy friends despise, forsake thee? Take it to the Lord in prayer;

In His arms He'll take and shield thee, Thou wilt find a solace there..

Sending out of Eucharistic Visitors
